

David Wall

Trainee Solicitor

David joined the team at The Projects Partnership in November 2007 and is keen to apply his skills and knowledge in the context of Public Private Partnerships and Private Finance Initiatives. He is responsible for undertaking research tasks on behalf of clients, drafting and amending legal documents and attending client meetings to assist directors and assistant solicitors where necessary.

David has been providing legal support for BSF schemes in the London Boroughs of Ealing and Lambeth. These involve Ealing's Wave 5 project and Lambeth's £200m procurement of a new Local Education Partnership and the first Parent Promoter Foundation School in the county. His work has also involved researching client options for social enterprise structures.

He is currently advising on the form of appointment documents for a number of national projects covering various construction consultancy services. David has been undertaking a wide variety of general legal support tasks to assist members of the legal team across the firm. He plays a particular role in the research, preparation and development of the firm's tender documents.

David received a Commendation for the Legal Practice Course at Manchester Metropolitan University early in 2007, and graduated from Nottingham Trent University in 2006 after completing his Master's degree in Law. Before that David completed his Bachelor's degree in Law at the University of Leicester.
