

Owen Willcox

Senior Solicitor

Before joining TPP Law Limited as a Senior Solicitor, Owen previously held positions as Senior Solicitor with Lawrence Graham LLP and before that was Head of Legal and Democratic Services at Harlow District Council.

Owen was seconded for 10 months to the East of England Development Agency as Interim Head of Legal Services where he oversaw the Agency's procurement function and provided day to day advice on EU and other procurement projects.

Owen has broad experience on vires and governance issues. He has gained substantial knowledge of commercial procurement legal issues both in the private and public sector.

Owen has been involved in a wide range of procurement and redevelopment projects for local authorities and housing associations.

Owen is the co-author of the "A-Z of Good Governance for Councillors (2007)" with James Findlay QC of 2-3 Gray's Inn Square.

Admitted as a solicitor

1982

Qualifications

LLB 2.1 University of Warwick Law School

Completed Major Projects

Establishment of the South Manchester Practice Based Commissioning I.P.S. Drafting the Rules and registering the Society

Establishment of the Independent Midwives I.P.S. Drafting the Rules and registering the Society. Drafting a contract for services commissioned by PCTs

Establishment of an IPS for NWSHA for the delivery of the 'Our Life' health improvement programme and drafting a grant aid agreement

Advised Stockport and Manchester PCTs on the restructuring of their PBC IPSs

Establishment of the Dentalxpress CIC for the provision of mobile general dentistry services

Advised NWSHA and NESHA in relation to their Transforming Community Services and Right to Request programmes with particular reference to social enterprise structures and TUPE and pensions issues

Advising the New Cross Gate Charitable NDC Company in relation to a comprehensive governance review. Redrafting the Memorandum and Articles, and attending key board and members meetings

Vires advice to a District Council regarding the establishment of a local authority regeneration company and the status of the company in relation to the European Procurement Regulations

Advised a GP lead CIC Crescent Health regarding its Constitution. Drafting revisions to its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Current Projects

Advising a charity regarding a proposed partnership agreement with a group of local authorities

Advising a voluntary sector consortium regarding the establishment of a new SPV

Advising a charity regarding the transfer of a care home.